

Radicalisation and recruiting by radical/extremist groups on the Internet

Urgent Info

- political extremists seek to get into contact with your child/children
- in doing so they will use for example: TikTok (messenger), INSTAGRAM
- they keep setting up groups, which are accessible by members only. Such groups are password-protected!
- these extremists attempt to convince your child/children of their cause and recruit your child/children for their goals, for home and also for abroad!
- in the beginning this often goes unnoticed for all those not involved
- do talk to your child/children – though very young he/she/they may be ! Do so time and again !
- keep watching what your child/ children. is/are doing. Who are those he/she they connect(s) with on the Internet? Who writes him/her/them and to whom do/does he/she/ they write?
- make sure you realise when your child has/children have changed.
- seek contact to and speak with the teachers who are likely to lend an open ear to this problem.
- make sure you know the friends of your child/children. Who does he/she/they meet with?
- make sure there is a close contact between you and your child/children – then you will notice any changes.
- let us advise you.
